

I am contacting you to ask the you prevent Sinclair Broadcasting from playing politics. Their decision to play what amounts to an infomercial in favor of one candidate and against another is wrong - if they are a political party or PAC, they should be forced to follow the rules of one, and if they aren't then they should go back to being a media outlet.

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy. Instead of something produced at "News Central" far away, it's more important that we see real people from our own communities and more substantive news about issues that matter.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
